Mobility Tracking

Mobility Tracking is a great solution to make your mobility transport as flexible as possible.

Mobility Tracking is a great solution to make your mobility transport as flexible as possible. Suited to quick release legs on seats, quick release track mounted restraints systems and side fold seating. For a great professional finish, the aluminium airline tracking come with a vinyl or carpet covering. Is corrosion free installation system increases the flexibility of long term use and longevity. The tracking system allows or maximum capacity to suit your application and get the best return for your transport. Our mobility tracking system is fully certified to New Zealand Safety standards for your assurance.

FEATURES

Increased flexibility

Maximise capacity to suit many configurations

Better resale value

Safe and secure

SPECIFICATIONS

Aluminium tracking

Plywood inserts

Vinyl or carpet insert covering

Great professional finish

Fully certified to NZ Safety Standards

Corrosion free installation system